"The Power of Place in a Wandering World"

Rev. Scott Rudolph, Minister

Physical spaces in our lives can affect us deeply and linger in our mental and emotional memory. Our surroundings fill our senses and create the playgrounds and battlegrounds of our past. All of us at one time or another have had to leave a place behind that we cared for. Sometimes we go back, other times never to return. The power of place can ground us. It can also let us know just how far we have traveled over time.

"Death Shows Us Life"

Rev. Scott Rudolph, Minister

Through death, we understand what it means to be alive. When a person we care for dies, we experience the pain of their absence, which happens because of the love we shared while they were alive. And for our own life as well, death reminds us that each day is precious.

* If you choose, please bring a memento or a keepsake from a loved one who has passed away for a shared ritual.

"Gratitudesgiving - Multi-generational"

Rev. Scott Rudolph, Minister

World news got you down? I get it. That makes sense. These are hard times. This morning at a multi-generational service we will lift up all that is good in our life and in our world! It will be a party of gratitude and thanks! A celebration of what is going right! A song of praise for what is beautiful and true! Sound good to you? Sounds good to me!

Choir Sunday: "Come and Find Me" by Jason Shelton

Thoughts Scott Begot

Rev. Scott Rudolph

I talk a decent amount about Love on Sunday mornings. It is because I believe in it. I believe that it is generative, that it is cohesive, and true. One Sunday a person said, "Well, Love, to me, seems to get right at the heart of it. Everything we do or try to be is based in Love." I would have to agree. This is our Universalist heritage peeking out.

I have also heard from a person that because the word is so big, they find it troubling. Fair enough. For me, Love is more than the energy flowing between two individuals. Love is about our whole approach to our lives and existence. It is about how and to what extent we are willing to open ourselves to the world's joy, beauty, pain and tragedy. Love is about compassion for others and allowing ourselves to be woven into the fabric of life.

There is a powerful scene in the 1982 movie Gandhi with Ben Kingsley that taught me about Love. The Hindus and Muslims are rioting, killing one another in the city and Gandhi has gone on a hunger strike to quell the violence. He is weak. Suddenly a wild-eyed man, a Hindu, races into Gandhi's chamber and, weeping, falls at the Mahatma's bedside.

"Save me. Save my soul!" he pleads.

"Why? What has happened? What have you done?" Gandhi asks.

"I have killed a child," cries the man.
"My son was killed in the rioting. I was mad. I found a Muslim child and I killed him."

And then you see in Gandhi's face such an expression of sadness and pain and love. You see that he so loves this man and the two murdered children and all the people, that their pain is his own; their sorrow, their madness and fear all are part of Gandhi. For Gandhi this was not just another child's anonymous death. It was not just another act of mad violence. For Gandhi it was a particular child and a specific man, and through them, all men and women, all children who suffer and who cause suffering.

"I know how to save your soul," Gandhi says after a silence. "You must find an orphaned Muslim child and take him as your own. You must raise him as a Muslim." This is not Hollywood. This is a true story--a real love story about the kind of love that heals and unites and transforms our lives and our world.

This is Love as God, a God worthy of devotion. This is compassion for one another, love of neighbor as self, the fundamental cohesive energy within the Universe. It flows between individuals. It flows among friends and families. It flows amongst neighbors and communities. It flows across cultures and continents and time.

Be sure, good people. I love our fellowship. I love what we create together. And I love you.

Scott

Letter from the President

Save the Date: Saturday, December 1
9 a.m. to noon

You are invited to DREAM BIG!

One of the responsibilities trusted to your leaders is planning. A meaningful plan starts with envisioning our future, collectively determining who we are, what we want to accomplish, why we exist. It means asking ourselves what the unique assets of this fellowship are and how do we best use them to support our mission. It asks, what will we have done in five years that warms our hearts and reinforces our reason to be?

While we, your Board of Trustees, will gather your thoughts, you, the Fellowship, will create the vision, the plan, and the actions that will bring it to life. So let's begin and come together on December 2nd to answer the questions that will be the foundation for a fluid, meaningful, motivational vision. More details to follow.

Staff Insights

Congregational Life Facilitator

In the summer between my junior and senior years in high school I had my first overseas experience, volunteering with a program called Amigos de las Americas. Our team of volunteers -- we were all young women in this locale -- was on assignment in the central part of Ecuador, in the province of Bolivar. We worked with the local health department assisting in a measles vaccination program. The local padre would drive us in his jeep to some remote part of the county, and we would find our way back to town, traipsing up and down the Andean mountain trails, registering and vaccinating the children. It was a formative experience that broadened my horizons tremendously.

Often in the afternoon when we returned to town, the local children would ask us gringas to play with them. And now, looking back with regret, I see how often I would excuse myself to our lodgings in the vacated convent; tired from walking all day in higher elevations (more than 8,000' above sea level), and mentally fatigued from trying to communicate in broken Spanish, I just didn't have it in me. "Another day," I would say to myself.

Whoooooosh! The days sped by and all of a sudden it was time to return home. "Wait a minute!" I implored. Too late. There was no "another day" left. The opportunity had passed.

Opportunities for service and connection at UUFCO may not be on as tight a timeline as my three-week assignment in Ecuador. But as we continue to cultivate a culture of inter-relatedness in our congregation, I'm hopeful that we can all respond to the needs before us as they arise: service needs -- from teaching Sunday morning religious exploration to signing up in advance to wash dishes after coffee hour to serving on a committee or team, as well as fellowship needs -- reaching out to one another and finding meaningful ways to build community.

Sometimes when we tell ourselves, "Oh, I'll do that later" we miss out on unique opportunities of participating in something greater than ourselves: brightening someone's day, contributing to the "hum" of a healthy organization, or beautifying our world.

Introducing our new Interim Director of Religious Exploration... Dana Regan

Dana Regan has served the Pacific Northwest District as Lead RE Consultant prior to the reformation into the Pacific Western Region of the UUA. She served as Director of Religious Education for Youth & Young Adults from 1995-2012 at First Unitarian Church in Portland. She also served two other Unitarian Universalist congregations for a total of 27 years' experience. As a professional religious educator, she ministered to (and with) young people, parents, and families, as part of the whole church. She served on the Board of the Liberal Religious Educators Association (LREDA) as well as the PNWD LREDA Chapter. She has been trained to facilitate and lead the Our Whole Lives: Sexuality Education curricula for grades 7-12 and have taught classes in sexuality education to youth for over 20 years. She is also an accredited Interim Religious Educator.

From Dana herself: "I was raised in three diverse religious faith communities: Lutheran, Christian Science and the Re-organized Church of Latter-Day Saints. I have been an active Unitarian Universalist for 30 years. I have also worked as an administrative assistant in a hospital and run my own children's daycare in the Seattle area. I am a long-time member of a book group and I travel with my family whenever possible. My partner, Jerry, and I have two children, ages 35 and 43. We have 1 grandson and 2 granddaughters."

Events and Announcements

New Tax Law & Charitable Giving

Monday, November 5: 7 - 8:30 p.m.

Are you up to date on the new tax law effective in 2018 and its effect on charitable giving? Do you understand how your charitable deductions will be affected by the new tax law? Do you know that you can make charitable contributions directly from your IRA if you are older than 70½? Do you realize that you can deduct the full value of appreciated stock and mutual funds donated to charity without incurring any tax on the capital gains?

Come learn about these topics from Linda Crouse, CPA/PFS/CFP®. Linda has over 40 years of experience in income tax and personal financial planning.

The Endowment Committee at UUFCO is sponsoring this education event for our members on Monday, November 5 from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in the Linus Pauling Hall. We will also talk about the purpose and vision for the endowment fund and values and motivations for charitable giving in our lives. Participation and questions welcome!

Please contact Linda (linda.c.crouse@gmail.com) if you plan to attend so we know how many handouts to prepare.

Leadership Collaborative

The Leadership Development Committee (LDC) is hosting the next Leadership Collaborative Workshop on Saturday, November 10, 9 - 11 a.m. The timely topics for this workshop are a continuation of "Leadership as a Spiritual Practice" and the creative development of the UUFCO visioning process. This workshop is open to all UUFCO committee and team leaders and those who are interested in future UUFCO leadership roles. Please contact Leslie Koc for more information.

Call to Artists

The Art Resource Team (ART) announces a call to artists for
"All About Trees."

We hope you are enjoying our current exhibit "Face It." We are already working toward our next exhibit, "All About Trees." This exhibit, which will be on display December 2 through February 3, will feature all manner and variety of trees, in all seasons, close up or in forests. This is a call to artists in our congregation. Please submit images in all media to Grace Kennedy, chair; Karen Maier is co-chair for this exhibit.

Due date for submissions: November 10. You may submit three pieces. Please include title, media, approximate dimensions and a digital image of each submission for consideration. Each framed piece accepted for the exhibit must have secure wire hangers to accommodate hanging on our gallery wires.

Board Meeting
Thursday, November 8
4 - 6 p.m.
Conference Room

If you are interested in having time on the agenda please contact Marty Rudolph, Board President. You are always welcome to come to a Board meeting.

Healthy Congregations Team
Introducing: *UUF*CO Connect

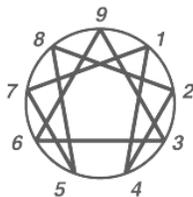

This month the Healthy Congregations Team (HCT) -- along with all the other UUF*CO* committees and teams -- participated in the Committee Fair during the Community Hour held October 21 between the two services. This was a real incentive for us to revisit how we communicate our purpose and an opportunity to connect with many people.

The purpose of the HCT is to foster open communication which makes for a healthy fellowship. We have created a new communication form, UUF*CO* Connect, designed to allow members, friends and guests another way to express ideas and feelings in regard to the Fellowship, activities, committees, individuals and staff. It is available on the kiosk and can be inserted in a sealed envelope addressed to HCT at UUF*CO*, dropped in the drop-box at the kiosk or mailed. An HCT member will respond to each communication. We are committed to actively working to support and maintain the health of UUF*CO*. It is work we all do when we are living our UUF*CO* Relational Covenant.

The Enneagram & The Inner Critic:
Deepening Heart Healing Workshop

with Michael Naylor

Friday/Saturday, November 16 & 17: 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

The Enneagram is a powerful awareness tool offering deep insight to help consciously navigate our journey in life. In this 2-day intensive workshop with internationally acclaimed Enneagram teacher, Michael Naylor, we will plunge into the heart of transforming your relationship with the Inner Critic and opening your heart to enhanced levels of healing. You will experience a deepened awareness of the unconscious and hypnotic power of the Inner Critic, and learn how to reduce its intrusions.

All experience levels welcome. Offered through UUF*CO*'s Adult Religious Exploration program. $175; $100 for pledging members of UUF*CO*.

For more information, and to register: www.uufco.org/enneagram.

Other UUFCA Happenings and Interests

Women's Life at UUFCA Brainstorming Meeting Sunday, November 18 at 12:15 in Linus Pauling Hall

Do you have ideas of ways women can connect and grow in our fellowship? Would you like to be part of organizing activities? What about a women's wine tasting? Or a book club for our women? Or small groups of women that meet once a week or once a month? If you said yes to any of those, please join us on November 18! Shonna Edwards invites you to bring any and all ideas to the Brainstorming, or please email them to her prior to November 18 if you won't be able to attend (shonnabella@gmail.com).

"Let's take the momentum of the recent Women's Retreat and the obvious desire for female companionship and community and create some action! I look forward to connecting with you all soon!"

~ Shonna Edwards

Bend Christmas Parade

Theme: Sharing Christmas Joy

Saturday, December 1

Save the date!

Do you -- or your child(ren) have any latent desires to march or skip or walk in a parade? Are you interested in representing UUFCA in Bend's annual Christmas Parade? Shannon Adams is interested in helping make this happen. If you'd like to be involved in deciding what -- if anything -- UUFCA could do "on parade", please contact Chela Sloper.

Social Justice

SOCIAL JUSTICE AND YOU

At the Social Justice service on October 21, Rev. Scott said that one of the goals of the Social Justice Committee is to give everyone associated with UUFCA the opportunity to take part in Social Justice work. By our very approximate reckoning, close to half of our congregation already has done something for Social Justice in the course of the past year. That something might include helping serve dinner at Bethlehem Inn or Jericho Table or attending the Fireflies Festival dinner, or joining an ISN action committee, or many other small and large ways of advancing our program. For those who have not yet jumped in, including some of the many new people who have come to UUFCA in the past months, the important thing is that you know how to contribute if you want to.

A first step is to know what the principal components of the Social Justice program at UUFCO are and whom to contact to find out about each part and to get involved in you want to. Even if you are not sure you are ready to make a commitment, it does not hurt to ask for information and give it some thought. Here is the list:

- Wildcat Wizards Tutoring (Christine Walsh)
- Project GRACE: Fireflies Book program (John Horwich)
- Immigration Solidarity Network-ISN (Sue Clarke)
- LGBTQ+ Advocacy and Education (Dustin Painter, Gabe Foltz)
- Community Dinners
 - Bethlehem Inn, Bend (Leslie Koc)
 - Jericho Table, Redmond (Pam Horwich)
- Environmental Justice (Alison Wells)
- Greater Community Collection - GCC (Ken Wilhelm)

But, also, if you see a need in another direction and want to work to get that project started at UUFCO and in the community, don't hesitate to make that proposal. Start by contacting Larry Price, Social Justice Committee chair. He and the SJ Steering Committee will work with you to try to find a way to move forward.

Greater Community Collection (GCC)

November recipient: Immigrant Counseling Service (ICS)

ICS

Non-Profit
Immigration
Advocates

ICS is a non-profit legal service for immigrants based in Portland with a second office in Hood River. Lisa LeSage is the executive director of ICS and, in conjunction with the Latino Community Association (LCA), has been bringing this service to Redmond one day each month. Obviously this is not nearly enough time to help immigrants and their families during this difficult political time. ICS and LCA want to establish a permanent office in Central Oregon (Redmond). ICS has developed a three-year plan to build to this full time goal while offering more part-time services as they continue to develop needed financial support. They are beginning to work with local businesses and interested groups and individuals to raise funds for this endeavor.

The November GCC will be received Sunday, November 25.

The GCC Committee chooses recipient agencies based on a number of criteria, the most important of which is the organization's reflection of our UUFCO principles. The Committee welcomes nominations from the fellowship and it's easy to do. The nomination form is on the UUFCO website and can be accessed on the website (<https://www.uufco.org/gccnomination>). Also, the GCC Committee is seeking additional members. Contact Ken Wilhelm at 541-280-0591 or bendorken53@gmail.com.

A good report: the offering received on October 28 for MountainStar Family Relief Nursery totaled $1,496.47. Thank you for your generosity!

FIREFLIES - LIGHTING SPARKS IN YOUNG LEARNERS

Gifts-in-a-Jar

You may recall as a child (depending on where you grew up) catching fireflies in a jar. Well, our FIREFLIES Team is putting those jars to a new use. For five Sundays (November 25 through December 23), we'll be selling a variety of Gifts-In-A-Jar to support our summer book bag program. Perfect for holiday gifting! Please stay tuned to upcoming ACEs and Fresh Sheets for more details.

Last year, thanks to the generosity of UUFCO members and friends and businesses in Central Oregon, we provided summer book bags to 325 students at 3 elementary schools in Bend and LaPine. This spring, our goal is to serve between 400 and 500 students at 4 schools. Every $25 we raise provides a book bag with at least 5 new books, games, puzzles, a journal, and other materials to help students (and their parents) stay engaged in learning throughout the summer.

Community Dinners

Make a difference and volunteer!

Bethlehem Inn Dinners -- Bend
Thursday, November 15

The monthly Bethlehem Inn dinner is one of UUFCO's long standing community outreach efforts. Once a month for almost 10 years now UUFCO has been preparing and serving a delicious home cooked dinner for Bethlehem Inn residents. The shelter is Central Oregon's largest homeless shelter. It's truly a rewarding experience and on a very practical level, it feeds the homeless in our community.

In each weekly ACE (All Congregation Email) you'll read about the date of the next dinner and see a link to volunteer for one of the volunteer spots: food coordinator, server, turkey meatloaf, mashed potatoes, mixed vegetables, gravy, milk and cupcakes. When you sign up you'll read about your specific volunteer spot and then receive a reminder the week of the dinner. No experience is necessary.

Sign up using this link, at the Kiosk on Sunday, or by emailing Leslie Koc.

Jericho Table
Serving Your Community in Redmond
Saturday, November 24

Please come and help other UUFCO'ers as we bring food and serve a "party" dinner for the Jericho Road/Table program once each month. Sign up at the link below to provide a main course, a fruit/veggie salad, drinks, or a dessert for 45 hungry people. We also need servers to help with the meal. Please join us!

Sign up by emailing Pam Horwich.

Small Group Offerings

Hard-Headed, Warm-Hearted UUs Form Affinity Group Calling all Atheists, Humanists, Rationalists, Naturalists

Tuesday, November 13: 6 p.m.

Do you identify as an atheist, humanist, rationalist or naturalist? If so, you might enjoy engaging in discussion with like-minded UUs -- Fellowship members and friends for whom "seeking the truth in love" includes a rigorous insistence on empirical evidence and sound reasoning. In October, a handful of us met with Chela and Rev. Scott to start framing the purpose and mission of such a UUFCO affinity group. Our next meeting will be at 6 p.m. Tuesday, November 13, in the Margaret Fuller conference room. We will define and discuss the movements we value -- atheism, rationalism, humanism -- and then forge an identity. What is our touchstone for truth? What is our common ground? What is our common purpose? What shall we name ourselves? For information, please contact Jameson O'Neal.

As a starting point for the discussion, please read the history and mission of the UU Humanist Association: <http://huumanists.org/about/history-and-mission>

Fill Your Cup: Midweek Coffee Wednesday at 10 a.m.

Every Wednesday at 10 a.m. you are invited to come on over for a cup of coffee and midweek check in. What's the topic? Anything on your mind! Let's get acquainted, talk about what's on our heart and mind, share life's goings on. We'll meet in Linus Pauling Hall -- except on the 4th Wednesday of the month, when we'll meet in the Margaret Fuller Conference Room. If you'd like to volunteer to bring a coffee cake or similar coffee companion, contact Chela Sloper (chela@uufco.org).

Neighborhood Fellowship Groups

For the past several months UUFCO's new neighborhood fellowship groups have begun to meet. These neighborhood groups provide an opportunity to get acquainted and build relationship with other members and friends of the congregation who live in the same general area -- whether parts of Bend, or other locales of Central Oregon. Participants open their home for a time of sharing -- either responding to a prompt question or sharing reflections on a reading if provided in advance.

Each group has a Point Person who has volunteered to ensure that all participants are included in the invitations. You may sign up for one of the neighborhood groups at the kiosk, or use this online form.

Circle Supper Friday, November 16 at 6 p.m.

Circle Suppers happen every month on the third Friday, and are a friendly way to meet new people in the congregation.

Any member or friend of the congregation can host the circle supper: you open your home, and the guests bring the food.

Sign up at the Kiosk in the Gathering Hall and you will be contacted by a host. Would you like to host a Circle Supper? You can indicate that on the sign-up, too. For additional information, contact Betsy Dickinson.

Adult RE Offerings

Soul Matters

November theme: Memory

Soul Matters is a program of Unitarian Universalists in North America which provides a monthly theme packet for personal reflection and spiritual growth. Each packet contains exercises to engage the theme in more than an intellectual way: various quotes, reflection questions and links to internet resources all help provide a multi-faceted way to consider the theme. To sign up for the Soul Matters packet please email soulmatters@uufco.org.

Tai Chi with Taoist Grandmaster Franklin:

Tai Chi classes are held every Thursday evening from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. in the Linus Pauling Room. The cost for the class is $30 per month for members of UUFco and $40 per month for non-members. Please contact Grandmaster Franklin to register for class at arawak327@gmail.com.

Writing as Revelation

Second Wednesday (November 14) at Dudley's Bookshop Cafe

Fourth Wednesday (November 28) in Linus Pauling

10:30 a.m. - noon

This writer's circle focuses on writing as a journey of exploration and self-discovery. To register please contact Donna or Trudi. We look forward to seeing you.

Changes Group

Second Sunday (next meeting November 11)

4-6 p.m. in Linus Pauling Hall

Everyone is welcome to join us at the monthly Changes group for an introduction to Focusing- an inner awareness process that uniquely integrates thoughts, emotions, and inner-bodily experience. It allows for new understandings, approaches and movement to places we're feeling stuck. You can use Focusing as a solitary practice, but the process is deepened when experienced in partnership with another person, providing a new way to listen to and be with others. Contact Steven Biesmann 541-410-9039 or (UUFco member) Tara Breitenbucher 541-905-0500 to RSVP or find out more.

Shelf-Realization Book Club: Making "Shift" Happen
Second and Fourth Tuesdays of the month (November 13 & 27)
5:30-7 p.m. in RE Commons

Current book: The Happiness Project (revised edition), by Gretchen Rubin. The group meets on the 2nd Tuesday of each month to discuss the current book focusing on personal transformation; on the 4th Tuesday the format is more open-ended, with an informal check-in that invites participants to share what shifts are occurring in their lives, regardless of whether these shifts relate to the current book under discussion. Contact Robin Slocum (rslocum@me.com) for more information.

Spiritual Practices available at UUFCO

Spring Forest Qigong Class with Dawn Song
Weekly on Wednesday at 2 p.m. and Sunday at 12:30 p.m. (no class 11/4)

The class is open to all who wish to attend. Suggested donation is $5-10 per class. No experience necessary, wear comfortable clothing. Questions? Email Dawn at <mailto:dawnsong03@gmail.com> or text 541-207-7266.

Sunday Morning Meditation: Sunday Morning at 9:15 – 10 a.m.

Chandra Smith invites you to our weekly Sunday morning meditation. All are welcome. Tom Wykes will lead the meditation on October 14: Tom uses a guided mediation approach to teach meditation, answers your questions and provides suggestions for maintaining a daily practice. Email Chandra with any questions.

Dances of Universal Peace

Next Dance meeting: Tuesday, November 27 at 7 p.m. in Linus Pauling. These dances are a form of sacred circle dancing which celebrate the world's myriad faith traditions through sacred phrase, unison movement, and song. All dances are fully taught, so no experience necessary. Questions? Contact Chela Sloper (chela@uufco.org).

Good Times Activities

Movie Night

On Friday, November 30. Movie TBD.
Come between 6 and 6:15 p.m. with snacks and your favorite beverage; movie begins at 6:30 p.m. A discussion will follow the movie.

Hiking Group

For information regarding UUFCA's hiking group, please contact Marcene Austin (360-594-7385 or marcene_austin@aol.com). Planned hikes are quite varied and all skill levels are welcome!

Card Night

If you are interested in playing cards on a regular (monthly) basis, email Jim Dobrowski or call 541-410-4887.

The Yarn Connection

The knitting/crocheting group meets weekly on Thursdays at 2 p.m. at Crows Feet Commons on Brooks Street in Bend. Contact Susie Linford for additional information.

Book Club Numero Uno (#1)

We invite new people to join Book Club Numero Uno.

We read a variety of books, both non-fiction and fiction. We meet on the first Wednesday of the month from 2-4 p.m. in the Founders Fireside room. Please call Bo Hanson (541-550-7656) or Wendy Howard (541-598-4794) for more information.
